General Rules

- The Norco Fair Jr. livestock Auction is restricted to FFA and 4-H members in good standing who live in or whose club is chartered in the Corona-Norco Unified School District. Grange members in good standing who reside within the Corona-Norco Unified School District may sell one market animal. All members may sell only one market animal. All exhibitors must be enrolled for 2011-2012 club year. All breeding classes, table decorating, home arts and educational displays are open to any FFA, 4-H or Grange member in good standing.
- FFA members may participate as members until the end of the calendar year following their graduation from high school. A graduate is eligible until December 31, 2012.
- 4-H and Grange members may exhibit after their fifth birthday or after entering the kindergarten and can exhibit as a member until the end of the calendar year in which the member reaches 19.
- Under no circumstances may an exhibitor enter the same species of animal in FFA, 4-H and Grange. An exhibitor is allowed to change a species from one organization to the other only once in a calendar year.
- No 4-H, FFA or Grange member may exhibit a market animal which has been sold as a market animal through any fair or junior livestock auction regardless of a change of ownership.
- Representatives from every club having animals participating in the auction are expected to assist in the organization and administration of the Norco Fair Jr. Livestock Show & Auction. This includes all workdays prior to the fair and after the fair, collections of donations for awards for the auction. Parking passes are handed out at the fairgrounds on Wednesday, August 31st once setup is completed.
- Entry blanks are available from Sharon Wilcox. Each member must include the name of his or her club or chapter on all entries as well as the signature of their club leader, project leader or FFA advisor. Unsigned entries will be returned.
- Entries must be delivered to Sharon Wilcox 4234 Center Ave Norco Ca. 92860 by one representative from each club or chapter. Each club must submit one check for entry fees with their entries. Six buyer letters per market animal for each exhibitor must also accompany each club's entries.
- There shall be no limit to the number of entries per exhibitor. There are limits to the number of animals that may be sold through the auction. (Refer to auction Rule #4).
- Each animal must be owned and part of a recognized project of the organization under whose supervision it is developed at least 60 days prior to exhibiting; except for market steers (class 1), where the requirement is 120 days. Large animal feeder & prospect class entries, poultry and breeding rabbits, must be owned by the exhibitor 30 days. Exhibitors must have owned and bred the doe for all rabbit meat pens. No purchased meat rabbit pens may be exhibited.
- The Livestock committee reserves the right to close classes and refuse additional entries when existing facilities become exhausted. Judges and committee may cobine or cancel classes dependent upon number of entries per class. Large animal breeding classes must have at least three entries. No more than two entries per class may be owned by a single exhibitor.
- Judges that participate at the Norco Fair cannot be related to exhibitors of the current show. Any judge that participates at the Norco Fair cannot sell market animals to exhibitors of the current show.
- Animals will be accepted and weighed-in between 4:00pm and 9:00pm, Thursday, September 1, 2011. Proof of ownership for Beef are due at weigh in. There will be no reweighs unless requested immediately before leaving the scale area. All market animals must be tagged prior to crossing the scale.
- Exhibits will be released between 12:00am and 8:00am Sept. 5th only with proper paper work and after pens have been inspected by barns and facility chair. All exhibitors must clean their pens before the parade or when animals are removed or their club will be penalized $10.00 per pen.
- Each exhibitor will receive with paid livestock entry one button for entry to the Norco Fair. Parking passes & additional buttons must be purchased, see attached parking pass/button order form.
- All exhibitors are responsible for the care, feeding, and watering of their animals until they are removed from the fairgrounds.
- The Fair management reserves the right to remove from the ring or fairgrounds any exhibitor or animal in case of illness of an animal or misconduct of an exhibitor. Any mistreatment of any exhibitor's animal will bar him or her from further participation in the remainder of the fair and will also result in removal of the exhibitor and all his or her entries from the fair.
- Written per mission must be obtained from the barns & facilities chairperson before removing any large livestock or small market animals from the fairgrounds for any reason.
- No one except for authorized personnel is allowed in the show ring during shows!
- Exhibitors are required to keep their exhibits clean and appealing at all times throughout the fair.
- All bedding must be furnished by exhibitor. No bedding will be furnished!
- Each club or chapter will be assigned a specific task for setup and take-down. Each club or chapter will also be assigned an area to maintain during the fair. The barns

General Rules

& facilities Chairperson will assign these tasks after the entries are received.

23. In all breed divisions, first and second place of each section will compete for its respective champion and reserve champion. For grand champion there must be at least two competing entries.
24. FFA, 4-H and Grange members will show together in all market and breeding classes, in the appropriate age class.
25. Any exhibitor, who fails to show up for his class, will not be allowed to compete in an alternate class.
26. 4-H primary members (K-3rd grade, and 5 years of age or older) may exhibit in the table decorating and home arts, rabbit, cavy and poultry divisions. They may also sell rabbits or poultry meat pens.
27. All large animals except dairy goats and horses will be required to remain on fair grounds for the duration of the fair.
28. Protests must be submitted in writing and signed within 24 hours of an event. They must be accompanied by a $50.00 filing fee. Decisions regarding application and interpretation of rules shall be made through consultation of the fair president, division chairperson and member's leader or advisor. If protest is valid, the member shall be ineligible for the showmanship class. If protest proves valid, 100% of the filing fee will be returned. Ruling will be made within 24 hours of protest.
29. Any exhibitor parent or legal guardian found in violation of fair rules or who commits any unethical act will forfeit all premiums, trophies and privileges or what ever deemed necessary by the Livestock committee.
30. All rules in this premium book will be followed. There will be no exceptions regardless of previous actions or precedents of the Livestock committee.
31. The signing of the entry form signifies that the exhibitor has read the show rules and understands and agrees to abide by them.
32. All exhibitors must be currently enrolled in the project he/she will be showing.
33. Feed gate will be open from 6:00am thru 9:00am Friday thru Sunday. Vehicles remaining inside the gates of the livestock level after 9:00am without proper "in side parking passes" may be towed at the owner's expense.
34. All exhibitors must participate in the Norco Fair annual fundraiser. For more information see the Norco Fair entry information page.

Security Information

Fair Preparation & Setup

All clubs are required to participate in all aspects of preparation, setup, cleanup & maintaining the grounds throughout the fair.

Barn Award

Each club has designated and assigned areas that are subject to random daily judging. Points will be awarded each day for cleanliness and overall appearance. At the end of the fair the club with the highest point total will receive the award.

Security Guidelines

Security watch will have a minimum of at least two people from each club on duty during their assigned time frame.

Security watch time is from 10:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. Each club or chapter that is assigned a night watch may split the time. (For example: a 10:00-12:00 shift, a 12:45-3:30 shift, and a 3:30-6:00 shift). Each club is responsible to assign security personnel for the assigned watch and forward those names and phone numbers two weeks prior to the setup of the fair to the barns/facilities chairperson or fair chairperson.

Security Watch Duties

- * Monitor animals so that none get loose from their stall or pen. In the event an animal becomes loose please report it to barns & facilities.
- * Watch for theft; people harming animals, exhibits, or facilities, etc.
- * Watch for animals that may be trying to injure other animals.
- * Check all areas for safety: i.e. broken fences, broken glass, tools not stored properly as to injure, etc. and repair or report on the report sheet that will be available.

In an Emergency

Fire:

Call 911. Attempt to put out the fire if it can be done safely. Fire extinguishers and fire hoses are available

Troublemakers:

Call 911. If possible get help from fair security.

Animal Safety Control:

Contact:

Sharon Wilcox 545-4765 or
Robin Grundmeyer 736-3241 x2092

Loose Animals:

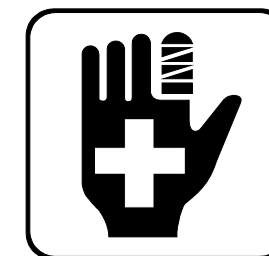

Return to stall or pen if possible. Otherwise, stall or pen temporarily (overnight) in a safe location, such as a show ring and secure the gates.

No Watch Relief:

Call the person that is listed as your relief or call your club or chapter security coordinator.

Safety Concerns

Security personnel should observe good safety practices at all times under no circumstances should they jeopardize their own personal safety for the safety of people, animals, or exhibits.
